

School library information and advocacy panel

Wednesday, April 11, 6:30pm

Robbins Library Community Room

What do school librarians do?

School librarians teach research skills, safety online, digital citizenship, and information communication skills. They are essential partners for teachers.

School library programs staffed by qualified school librarians have a positive impact on student academic achievement.

Why are school librarians important?